Meet Anthony from Australia

Gender: Male
Age (at arrival): 15 years
Program length: Year

Anthony who actually goes by his middle name, Conrad is what his parents say, "Part court jester and part philosopher." He is very humorous, friendly, lighthearted and helpful. Conrad states, "that sometimes he can be quite serious and a thinker at times too." He enjoys soccer, swimming and reading, especially modern classics. His favorite subjects are English and science. Conrad thinks that team sports promote team work and relationships. He believes he is full of potential and the only way to realize this potential is to work hard and to take opportunities that come his way.

Meet Yuta from Japan

Age (at arrival): 18
Program length: Year

Meet sport-loving and outgoing Yuta from Japan! He is a huge fan of rugby and football and plays for his high school; he loves the teamwork. He also likes to go to the recreational center to workout and play badminton, soccer and basketball with everyone around - young and old. He even volunteers to teach little kids how to play different sports. In the future Yuta dreams of becoming an aerospace engineer so he can work for NASA. He wants to help the planet and everyone on it and hopes to contribute in great ways when he's older. AFS volunteers say Yuta is talkative, popular, and responsible.
